

Dear loyal customers,

After careful consideration, we've decided to end sales on Vinted effective June 27, 2026. A reputable French news outlet has reported certain sellers attempting to traffic children, which we at Gigi's Cabinet do not condone or tolerate. Vinted also refuses to attempt a fix, and are currently under investigation. If the case ends up getting dismissed or Vinted takes action, we likely will restart sales on Vinted, but in the meantime all listings currently on Vinted will be moved to Depop. We hope that this isn't too inconvenient, and if you have any questions, e-mail us or message us on Depop!

Thanks,

Morgan Bedard
